Leisure, Advanced & Pro Paths

OUR VISION

Tennis has always been more than just a sport for me. It's a reflection of the soul, a true school of perseverance. It's where we learn to rise after failure, to fight through adversity, and to believe in ourselves.

At CV Tennis Academy, we don't simply teach technique. We awaken the fire within. We shape character. We inspire belief in dreams. Because a true champion isn't just someone who plays the game. A true champion is someone who moves forward, even when the path is difficult, and the effort feels relentless.

The professional circuit isn't promised — but with us, every player is trained as if they were going there. With an uncompromising passion for pure technique, the right fundamentals, and a deep love for the sport.

Whether it's for fun or to start a professional carrier, we adjust our coaching to unlock the best of every player, ensuring that even in leisure programs, every player develop a solid technique, the right gesture and a growing passion for the game.

Our vision is clear: We believe in excellence. Always.

Per Tenacitatem, Ad Excellens.

COACHING METHODOLOGY · For Beginners

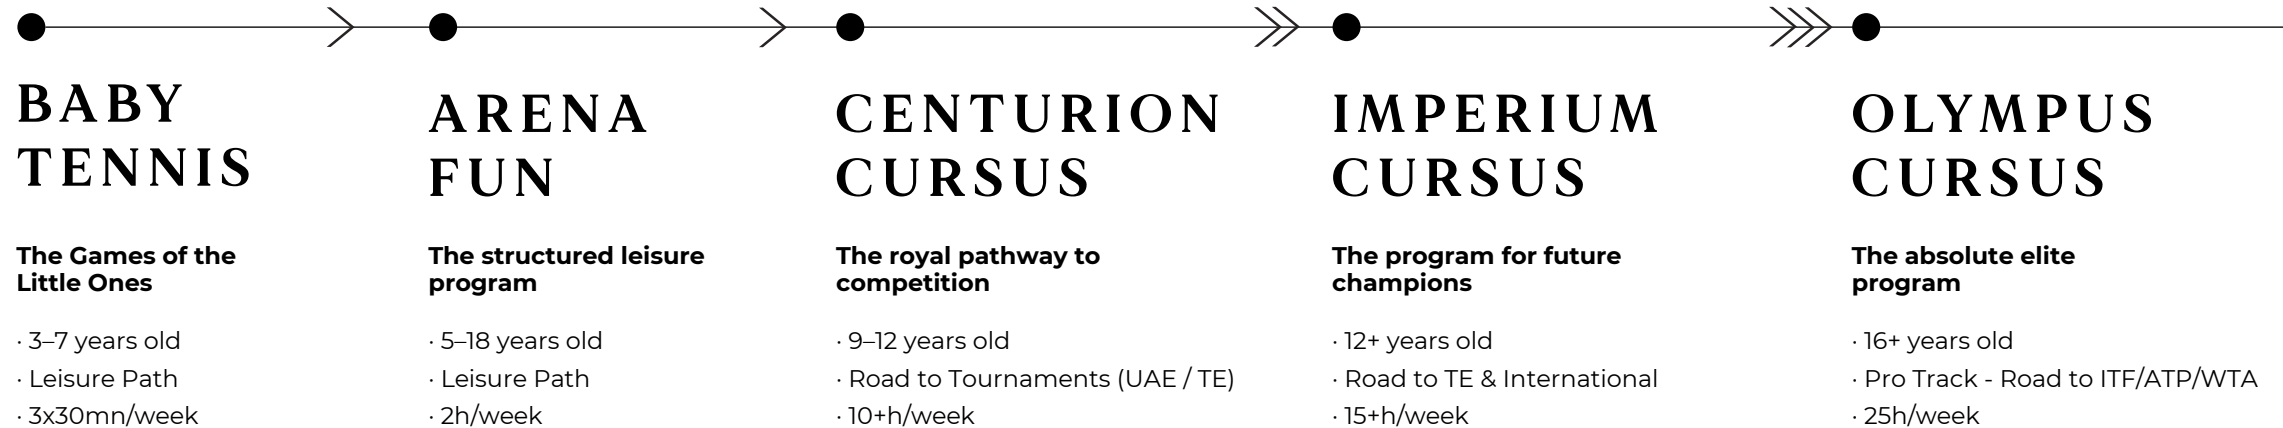

Our approach is simple & built on solid foundations.

- 1 Physical Preparation: We advise parents to include physical training early on to support overall development. A child without proper physical preparation will need to work three times harder later to play tennis well.
- 2 No Early Strokes: Beginners do not hit tennis strokes during the first 1 to 2 months.
- 3 Shadow Phase: Players begin with a shadow phase lasting 1 to 3 months, focusing on movement patterns and body positioning using the 8 stage of the forehand and the 6 stages of the backhand
- 4 The Waiting Phase: Many beginner kids tend to stay rooted in place, waiting for the ball instead of moving actively. Developing side-to-side footwork, like a boxer's rhythm, is crucial in the early stages.
- 5 The Split Step: Learning the split step takes time—months of practice to build the quick reflex needed to move toward the ball. Few beginners understand its importance, yet it's key to playing well.
- 6 Balance & Coordination: Exercises develop balance, coordination, and biomechanical foundations.
- 7 Self-Fed Accuracy Work: Players learn to feed the ball themselves and aim for precise targets on court.
- 8 Placement Awareness: They practice stopping the ball to understand spacing, timing, and court position.
- 9 Rally Progression: Rallying begins around month 3, with clean and elegant technique — not rushed chaos or “clown tennis.”
- 10 Serve Development: The serve is introduced early through toss-only phases, followed by the throw with full serve motion and ball contact added after 4 months.

JUNIOR PROGRAM FRAMEWORK

STEP-BY-STEP PROGRESSION

Progression is step-by-step. Beginners start with Baby Tennis or Arena Fun, then Centurion Cursus, then Imperium Cursus and finally Olympus Cursus.

ADVANCEMENT CRITERIA

Advancement to a higher tier is by coach evaluation and demonstrated readiness; it is not automatic or guaranteed.

PERFORMANCE FACTORS

Results depend on each player's commitment, attendance, health/injuries, and the level of competition—no program can promise specific rankings or wins.

BABY TENNIS

We designed our Baby Tennis programs with 30-minute tennis lessons, to keep the children learning experience short, playful, and focused.

The Baby Tennis programs are available in limited afternoon slots with a minimum of 3 sessions per week, to ensure rhythm, continuity, and visible progress. You can choose between group lessons, duo lessons, and private lessons – for a duration of 10 weeks (30 lessons).

As attention and coordination grow, children may transition to 60-minute sessions, typically twice per week, to deepen technical and tactical foundations.

Here we build foundations not to win early, but to learn to stand upright, to breathe rightly, to seek beauty before victory.
